

Press Release*18th April 2014*CREAT3D showcasing 3D printing in the Tech Box at Grand Designs Live.*Grand Designs Live London and Birmingham will see 3D printing for the first time.

CREAT3D Ltd (www.desktop3dprinter.com), the independent specialist retailer of desktop 3D printers and 3D scanners will be showcasing desktop 3D printers and handheld 3D scanners in the Tech Box at Grand Designs Live, London and Birmingham.

Grand Designs Live London, taking place at Excel in London from Tuesday 4th to Sunday 11th May is a design and technology event on a grand scale, with over 120,000 visitors expected.

Grand Designs Live Birmingham will take place from Thursday 9th to Sunday 12th October at the NEC in Birmingham later this year.

The Tech Box will give visitors an interactive walk through experience showing that it is possible to stay eco-friendly without compromising your love of cutting-edge technology. CREAT3D will be hosting a 3D printing and 3D scanning feature zone with experts on hand to introduce and demonstrate the technology to visitors to the event. Featured at Grand Designs Live will be the latest in desktop 3D printing technology from a range of manufacturers including Ultimaker, MakerBot and 3D Systems. The brand new Fuel3D scanner will also be demonstrated by CREAT3D in the Tech Box, a scanner ideal for designers, game developers, animators, 3D artists or any other type of creative developer due to its ability to capture high-resolution and colour.

"We are really looking forward to be able to showcase this new technology, which has appeared so often in the media as of late, to visitors to Grand Designs Live, so they can see it live first-hand. It's always mesmerising to watch and fascinating to learn how it works and what can be created, I'm sure it's going to be a hit with the visitors!" Sabina Gonzalez-George, Marketing Director at CREAT3D.

Tickets to Grand Designs Live can be purchased in advance at www.granddesignslive.com
